

FREE-TO-ATTEND EXHIBITION

The annual ITEC exhibition and conference will be held at PVA Expo in Prague from 28-30 April, 2015. ITEC is the leading international forum for military training, education and simulation and education sectors.

The event's leading exhibition is free to attend and offers a unique perspective of the latest innovations in these sectors and provides visitors with a platform to discuss developments and exchange ideas in this ever evolving market.

Alongside the exhibition there is a high level conference with seven themes reflecting the current training and simulation climate.

Focused on bringing topics of critical importance to the fore of international debate, this year the agenda has evolved into seven separate, but equally significant streams:

- Training & Education Policy \(Strategy to Requirements\)
- Military Training & Education Delivery \(Requirements to Delivery\)
- Procurement \(Strategy to Delivery\)
- Cyber
- First Response: Civil & Military Crisis Management
- Medical Training and Simulation
- M&S Technologies & Architectures

There are also exclusive prices available to academics and the public sector, as well as a number of free places available for serving military.

All DSIA members receive an additional 20% by using the code:
ITEC2015DSIA

*All registrants are subject to verification checks. Acceptance is not guaranteed. Prices exclude VAT, charged at 21%.
