

SOBRA

Dear Sir or Madam,

We kindly invite you to target business and simultaneously high profile promotional presentations at the International Fair of Defence, Security, Protection and Rescue SOBRA 2016.

SOBRA Fair will from Thursday 22nd to Saturday 24th September 2016, at the crossroads of four countries in Gornja Radgona, Slovenia, offer equipment and services for the military, police, civil protection, fire-fighters, institutions dealing with defence, protection, rescue and safety of people and property, and families and individuals who want to responsibly provide for their own safety.

SOBRA allows plenty of opportunity to establish business and professional partnerships. Along with commercial exhibitors there will be presentations by all Slovenian umbrella institutions in the field of defence, security, safety and rescue and they will invite to the event their buyers and professional associates, and members...

The Slovenian Armed Forces, Police, Firefighters Association of Slovenia, Civil Protection and other umbrella institutions will present their activities in dynamic presentations, professional conferences, cultural and social events and educational events for children. Visitors concerned about their personal safety and the safety of their property will also be offered useful advice. SOBRA is, therefore, an excellent opportunity for extensive promotion and increasing public awareness

For further information about your participation in an alliance of confidence offered by the SOBRA Fair, please contact the fair's project manager Boris Nicolas Erjavec (e-mail: boris.erjavec@pomurski-sejem.si, tel.: +386 2 115 5642).

You are invited to join us in a successful and pleasant cooperation!

With respect.
