The European Commission and Defence and Security Industry Association of the Czech Republic, are organising a European Conference in Prague on:

DEFENCE INNOVATION

Getting the Edge on the Market and in the Battlefield

This event will be held 'in person' on 20 April 2023 at the Hotel Don Giovanni (Prague). Participants will be encouraged to exchange best practices and experiences on how innovation can be accelerated to the defence sector and civil technologies be adopted. Participants will also get information about EU funding opportunities in the area of defence innovation.

It will also offer participants possibilities to demonstrate and pitch their innovative technologies as well as take part in matchmaking meetings.

The conference will bring together companies of different sizes across the EU, research institutes and academia, governmental representatives as well as armed forces.

The conference is being organised in the framework of the European Network of Defence-related Regions.

Registration is free of charge.
